

When coming from the east along Ottawa Street, turn left onto Martin Street. Shortly after the turn, the street veers to the right and becomes Queen Street. Follow Queen Street until you reach the lights at Mill Street. Turn right onto Mill Street. Textile traditions is the third business on your right. If you are unable to find parking in front of the store, you can usually park in the library lot. It is reached by turning left at the lights at Mill Street. The walk is quite short and almost all flat.
